Prepare policies and documentation according to the ANSI Standards. Apply processes and procedures within your AMC.

Staff Introduction and incorporation of AMCI Accreditation & Standards within your AMC

After policies have been established and all documentation compiled, select a qualified CPA to conduct your AMC's review.

Give the CPA/reviewer AMCI's reviewer materials (reviewer forms, webinar training, and guide).

Reviewers Commitment (Form 1005) is submitted to AMCI, completed and signed by reviewer. Reviewer must be approved by AMCI before review is conducted.

AMCI will notify you within seven working days of receipt of Form 1005 and supporting documentation from reviewer if your review has been approved.

Submit the following to AMCI:

- Declaration of Intent to Become AMCI Accredited (Form 1002)
- License Agreement (Form 1003)
- Accreditation Fee (Form 1006) and Initial Accreditation Fee Payment
- Procedures for Alleged Violations and Statement of Solvency (Form 1007)

Confirm the terms and conditions of your AMC's review directly with your CPA/reviewer. Related expenses are to be negotiated by you and are your AMC's responsibility.

Schedule the review. Ideally, the review should be completed within six (6) months of submitting Form 1002 and within 30 days of AMCI's approval of your firm's selected CPA/reviewer.

Upon AMCI Accreditation review completion, the reviewer will then forward the Reviewer's Report (Form 1004) to AMCI for verification and AMCI processing of all forms submitted by AMC, including Reviewer's Report.
